NEW DJ ON THE BLOCK

On Friday, April 16th a new DJ made his debut at Bernice DuBro's Dance Studio monthly Friday night practice dance. It is someone that has been in the Dayton dance community for several years now and you can spot him and his wife, Barbara, at just about every one of the Saturday night dances in Dayton or Cincinnati! He has been gathering information and working towards this project for some time now.

Finally after obtaining as much info as he could, thanks to the help of our local extraordinary DJs, Harland Knox, Jack Meinking, Tony Rimkus, and Jack Yaus, he 'bit the bullet', invested in the necessary equipment and ballroom dance music and is now available for DJ'ing! I'm talking about none other than John Bramhall! If Friday night was a sample of your capabilities as a DJ and the great music you have lined up for us, the dance community is in for a real treat! John (and Barb), the very best of luck in your new venture.

—Pam Radermacher

(From the Editor: While I can assure you this article was not solicited, I do appreciate the support, words of encouragement, and music suggestions I have received from many of you in the local dance community. I wish to especially thank the DJs noted above who have been extremely supportive and open in their time and knowledge they have given me. My heart-felt appreciation goes out to all of you. You too, Pam!)

Everyone Enjoys Dancing

Pictured above is Art May dancing with Dorothy Rosenthal, 101 years young, of Lincoln Park. Wow! Art said "It was an honor to dance with her and she never missed a beat. Is that inspiration or what?"

Each year, The Lincoln Park Senior Center Annual Dance Gala is attended by a few students of the Bernice DuBro Dance Studio. This year, besides Art & Bernice, Jack & Bonnie Yaus, Chet Rogers & Edith Fuson, Dave & Judy Rose & Don Hoyer attended the gala. After a brief demonstration of some ballroom dancing, they spent the rest of the evening dancing with the seniors. It is always a memorable evening for all.
