Swing 'n' Sway

A couple in the dance community needs our prayers. Please keep Tho and Be Nguyen in your thoughts and prayers. It was learned just before the newsletter deadline that Tho is very ill and hospitalized in Cincinnati. As a result, Be had to relinquish her post as treasurer of the Stardust dance club. She and her husband are regular attendees of dances at Arbor, B&B Hall, and the Solomon

Pavilion.

Bob and Sylvia Corcoran, originally scheduled to dance in September, will be our guest dancers in November. They have been dancing together since the late 70s.

Our thanks to Liz Apesos of Always Ballroom and her professional partner, David Rosario, for performing on very short notice in September. Their dances were entertaining and well executed.

Also in the house that night from Always Ballroom was Jayson Michaels. This talented young man continues to work with young people who want to dance. You may recall the group he coached appeared at Dance Fair. Way to go Jayson and keep up the good work! Give those kids a round of applause for us!! We would very much enjoy seeing them dance again.

See you 'round the dance floor.

— Dean Shipley, reporter

Dance(tonians)

We would like to express our sympathy to Marilyn Collmer Franer, Dance(tonians') Secretary, for the loss of her father, Albert A. Collmer, who passed away on October 17.

Dance(tonians)

A small but lively crowd enjoyed a Salsa lesson taught by Tanya and Doug Shafner. Doug and Tanya are familiar faces for Daytonians. Doug teaches at Dayton Ballroom Dance Club on Monday night and Tanya has a dance studio in Lima. They frequently participate in Dance Fair. Doug and Tanya and a group of their students traveled from Lima to spend the evening dancing with Dance(tonians') members and guests. John Bramhall's music was wonderful and as a tasty fall treat, doughnuts and cider, was served.

November 11 at 7:30, Jill Christy of Dayton Ballroom will teach an EAST coast swing step, followed by general dancing at 8:15. Jill always has plenty of energy so this should be a fun event!

December 9 Mario Kraszewsky from Arthur Murray will teach a Mambo/Salsa lesson at 7:30. Mario and Dominika Sulek will also provide entertainment with a short Latin Routine at 9:30. This should be a spectacular evening filled with good food, laughter, and lots of dancing. Please plan to bring an appetizer or dessert to share on December 9.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR SO YOU DON'T MISS THESE EVENTS!

— Linda Shapiro

Dance Lesson on East Coast

Swing

Instructed by Jill Christy

Dance(tonians) is pleased to have Jill Christy teaching a lesson on East Coast Swing during our monthly dance lesson on November 11.

Jill first started teaching for the Dayton Ballroom Dance Club in 1983. She's been ballroom dancing since she was 18. That year she went into the local Fred Astaire Studio and applied to be trained as an instructor. She fell in love with it right away and three months later she was ready to teach. She's now a certified Bronze, Silver and Gold instructor. She competed for five years and was once the Ohio State Champion. She ran a dance studio in Dayton for ten years with Larry May. She continues to teach at Dayton Ballroom Dance Club and group classes Wednesday and Thursday evenings at Elegance in Dance.
